Support pro-choice
women running for Congre$$ this year!

Go to HalftheCongress.org
for more details

My list of non-incumbent, pro-choice, female candidates has just over 100 women on it. You can find it at HalftheCongress.org. My apologies if it is incomplete. Some of the women are better-positioned than others to win their races. Due to gerrymandering there are awesome candidates who might lose to truly despicable incumbents, which makes me sad.

Below I have compiled a list of 25 women who can win with our financial and word-of-mouth support. Please help them!! The candidates for Senate are bolded because their races are particularly important. Tell your friends and family in these states about these women. Go to their websites, donate, and volunteer! Many campaigns can use remote helpers. I name their opponents in the case of incumbents. Keep in mind that even open seats have opposition; it is just a little more possible to win!!
